

HOUSTON CHAPTER
TEXAS ASSOCIATION OF ADDICTION PROFESSIONALS
BYLAWS

ARTICLE I - NAME

The name of this association shall be the Houston Chapter Texas Association of Addiction Professionals, with perpetual duration, and herein referred to as “the Association” or by the acronym “TAAP”.

ARTICLE II - OBJECTIVES

TAAP is organized as a trade association under the United States Tax Code, Section 501c (6) as an association for professionals committed to professional development through:

- A. Legislative Advocacy: Our highest priority is advocacy for the prevention, intervention, and treatment of addiction. This goal is accomplished through prudent execution of personal and corporate advocacy efforts at local, state and national levels. The expertise, integrity, and commitment of our association management firm and the staff of our national affiliate lead advocacy efforts. Advocacy includes monitoring regulatory agencies at state and federal levels.
- B. Professional Growth Opportunities: To provide for our members the means to participate in discussions regarding prevention, intervention, and treatment efforts at the state, national and international level through affiliation with our State Organization TAAP, NAADAC, the National Association for Addiction Professionals, and with IC&RC, the International Certification and Reciprocity Consortium.
- C. Academic Growth Opportunities: To provide for our members up-to-date postings on the association website and through email list serves regarding opportunities for academic advancement. To network with faculty at academic institutions that offer coursework in addiction sciences to advocate for broader curriculum, distance learning, and advanced degrees in addiction sciences.
- D. Business Growth Opportunities: To promote expanded opportunities for our members to establish and maintain addiction-related businesses, such as private practice or continuing education provider by providing professional networking opportunities, technical assistance, and a web-based referral service.
- E. Peer Assistance: To provide a mentoring and support program for substance abuse counselors who live or work in the State of Texas. While assisting impaired professionals to recover and return to the profession is of paramount concern, support is also provided to counselor interns, those counselors who are isolated or who work in geographically remote areas, and for counselors who are in need of mentoring to elevate standards of practice to acceptable levels.
- F. Ethical Standards: To develop, maintain and enforce a Code of Ethics for our members that reflect the highest standards of conduct for our profession, and to advocate with state and federal regulatory agencies for the inclusion of these standards in laws and regulations.
- G. To affiliate with State TAAP and NAADAC, The National Association of Addiction Professionals and other addiction related counselors and counselor associations in the state of Texas and beyond.

ARTICLE III - MEMBERSHIP

Section 1—Membership Categories

A. Professional Members

Professional Members shall be those persons actively engaged in the field of prevention, intervention, and treatment of addiction. These members shall actively participate in the Association, have full voting rights, may serve on committees, and hold elective and appointive offices when qualified as set forth in these Bylaws. Professional Members not currently engaged as set forth above, may retain their Professional member status, provided they have been Professional Members of the Association for at least two years and continue to pay such dues as are required by this class of membership.

B. Student Members

Student Members shall be those persons with an interest in prevention, intervention, and treatment of addiction, and the aims and purposes of the Association, and who are pursuing licensure or certification in the prevention, intervention, and treatment of addiction fields.

C. Associate Members

Associate Members shall be individuals who are working towards qualification, licensure or certification in the addictions profession. Membership benefits are the same as a Professional member. Non-clinical professionals who wish to join NAADAC (e.g. probation officers, marketing representatives, public health workers, etc.) will also be eligible for membership as Associate members

D. Retired Members

Open to current members of the Association who are 65 years or older and have retired from the profession.

Section 2 - Dues

A. Annual Dues

Each class of membership shall pay to the NAADAC annual national and state dues in the amount decided upon at the Annual Membership Meeting. Dues may be billed and collected on a periodic basis during the fiscal year as determined by the Board of Directors.

B. Dues Payments

Annual dues shall be due and payable on or before the expiration date of the month joined. Member dues must be current before a member may vote on chapter business issues, elections and committee concerns. The State Association Headquarters shall remit monthly to the Houston chapter that portion of membership dues designated for return to the local chapter treasury.

C. National Affiliate Dues Payments

When dues are paid directly to the National Affiliate, the National Affiliate will remit appropriate state dues to the Association Headquarters on a monthly basis and the State Affiliate will remit appropriate local dues in a timely manner to the local chapter.

D. Dues Refund

No dues shall be refunded to any member whose membership terminates for any reason.

Section 3 – Resignation, Removal and or Termination of Membership

Any member of the Association may resign by filing a written letter of resignation with the Association. Such resignation shall not relieve the resigning member from the obligation to pay any dues theretofore accrued and unpaid.

Members of any classification may be removed or terminated from membership for cause by a two-thirds vote of the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors of the Association.. For any cause other than non-payment of dues, removal shall occur only after the member complained against has been advised of the complaint, and given a reasonable opportunity to offer a defense. If removed, such member may appeal from the decision of the Executive Committee to the Board of Directors of the Association, provided that notice of intent to appeal is provided to the Executive Committee, in writing, at least thirty (30) days in advance of the meeting of the Board of Directors at which such appeal is to be discussed.

ARTICLE IV - OFFICERS

The Executive authority of the Association shall be vested in the elected officers, who comprise the Executive Committee.

Section 1 - Officers

The officers of this Association shall be: President, President Elect, Secretary, Finance Officer, and Immediate Past President.

- A. The President Elect is the only officer elected by the general membership and shall serve for six years as follows: two years as President Elect two years as President and two years as Immediate Past President.
- B. The Secretary and Finance Officer will be members of and elected by the Board of Directors of the Houston Chapter Association. The nomination and election shall be held at the summer meeting.
- C. Only Two Members from the same employer or family may be represented on the Board of Directors. Exceptions may be made with 2/3 board approval.

Section 2- Parliamentary

A professional Parliamentarian, with recommendation of the Executive Committee, may be retained by the Board of Directors. If no professional parliamentarian is retained, the president may appoint a volunteer parliamentarian with the approval of the Board of Directors.

Section 3 - Terms of Office

Elected officers shall take office at the end of the first business meeting after the election results are announced and may only serve two terms consecutively, but are eligible to run again after a period of at least one (1) year off the Board. Except as specified in Section 1 of this Article, officers shall be elected for a three (3) year term.

Section 4 - Vacancies/Removal

A. A vacancy in the office of President shall be filled by the President Elect for the remainders of that term, after which the President Elect shall serve his/her, own elected term as President. A vacancy in the office of the President Elect shall be filled by the Immediate Past President for the remainder of the term only, after which the President Elect position shall be open for election. Any other vacancy in an elective or appointive office shall be filled by appointment by the President subject to approval by the Board of Directors at its next regular meeting.

B. Any officer may be removed from office for cause by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Directors present and voting at any Board of Directors meeting. Causes for removal are:

- 1) Breach of the Code of Ethics;
- 2) Conflicts of interest which are deemed by the Board of Directors to be detrimental to the Association;
- 3) Failure to carry out the duties of office by reason of non-participation, and;
- 4) Failure to disclose to or discuss with the Board of Directors any financial involvement an officer may have with funds of a local chapter or of the Association.

Section 5 - Absence of Officers

A. If any person holding office in this Association is absent from regular meetings of the Executive Committee or of the Board of Directors after being duly notified on two consecutive occasions, or fails to perform the duties of office as prescribed by these Bylaws, said person's office shall be deemed vacant by recommendation of the Executive Committee and shall be filled as provided in Section 5A. A person whose office is vacated shall have the right to appeal this recommendation at the next regular meeting of the Board of Directors for final determination.

B. In the event an officer is unable to attend a regular meeting of the Executive Committee or of the Board of Directors, said officer shall notify the President directly. The body from which the officer is absent, i.e., the Executive Committee or the Board of Directors, may determine if said officer's absence is for cause. Any officer who fails to notify the President or Association Headquarters as prescribed herein shall be deemed to be absent without cause.

Section 6 - Compensation and Expenses

No officer of the Association may receive any salary or compensation from the Association, but may be allowed reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in performing their duties.

- A. Expenses for elected or appointed officers of the Association shall be paid by the Association when authorized by the Board of Directors
- B. No officer of the Association, or first-degree relative by blood or marriage of an officer may be employed by the Association or enter into a contract with the Association for a period of two years following the officer's term of office.
- C. Out-of-state travel shall be approved on a case-by-case basis by the President and Finance Officer and approved by the board in advance of travel departure.
- D. Previously budgeted out of state travel expenses for designated representatives to national meetings are deemed approved barring a fiscal emergency, in which case the President and Finance Officer may withhold funding for said travel provided that the emergency action is taken at least thirty days prior to scheduled departure.

ARTICLE X - PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

The rules contained in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised shall govern the proceedings of the Association in all cases in which they are not inconsistent with these bylaws.

ARTICLE XI - AMENDMENTS

Amendments to these Bylaws shall be made by a vote of two-thirds of members present and voting at the General Membership Meeting, Town Hall Meeting or Special Membership Meetings. Proposed amendments shall be transmitted electronically to Association members at least sixty (60) days prior to any vote of adoption for amendments.

ARTICLE XII – INDEMNIFICATION

A. Good Faith Action - The Association shall be authorized to indemnify each of its directors and officers from and against any and all judgments, fines, amounts paid in settlement, and reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, actually and necessarily incurred or imposed as a result of any action or proceeding or any appeal therein, imposed upon or inserted against him or her by reason of being or having been such a director or officer and acting within the scope of his or her official duties, but only when the determination shall have been made that such director or officer (1) acted in good faith, (2) believes (i) in the case of conduct in his or her official capacity with the Association, that his or her conduct was in the best interests of the Association, and (ii) in all other cases, that his or her conduct was at least not opposed to the best interests of the Association, and (3) in the case of any criminal proceeding, he or she had no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful. Such determination shall be made either judiciously or by the Board of Directors of the Association acting by a quorum consisting of directors who are not parties to such action or proceeding or, if a quorum of the Board of Directors is not obtainable, by independent legal counsel. If the foregoing determination is to be made by the Board of Directors, the Board of Directors may rely, as to all questions of law, on the advice of independent legal counsel.

B. Inclusion - Every reference herein to a member of the Board of Directors or officer of the Association shall include every director and officer thereof and former director and officer thereof. This indemnification shall apply to all the judgments, fines, amounts in settlement, and reasonable expenses described above whenever arising, allowable as above-stated. The right of indemnification herein provided shall be in addition to any and all rights to which any director or officer of the Association might otherwise be entitled and provisions hereof shall neither impair nor adversely affect such rights.

ARTICLE XIII - DISSOLUTION CLAUSE

The assets of the Association in the process of dissolution shall be applied and distributed as follows:

A. All liabilities and obligations of the Association shall be paid and discharged; in case its property and assets are not sufficient to satisfy or discharge all the Association's liabilities and obligations, the Association shall apply them so far as they will go to the just and equitable payment of the liabilities and obligations.

B. Assets held by the Association upon condition requiring return, transfer or conveyance, which occurs by reason of a dissolution, shall be returned, transferred or conveyed in accordance with the individual requirement of these assets.

C. Assets received and held by the Association, subject to limitation, permitting their use only for eleemosynary, benevolent, education or similar purposes but not held upon a condition requiring return, transfer or conveyance by reason of the dissolution, together with any income earned thereon, shall be transferred, conveyed to one or more domestic or foreign corporations, societies or organizations engaged in activities substantially similar to those of the Association, which would then qualify under the provisions of Section 501 (c) (6) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations as they now exist, or as they may hereafter be so amended.

TAAP Bylaws were originally adopted by a electronic vote of Houston Chapter TAAP members on July 1, 2015
